

Sheena Cameron & Louise Dempsey

invite you to a professional learning workshop in Wagga Wagga

A closer look at guided reading

In this workshop, Sheena and Louise will revisit the planning and organisation of the guided reading lesson at emergent, early and fluent levels. In addition, they will explore realistic and manageable ideas to engage students who are not working with the teacher.

The workshop will cover:

- Revisit the components of a guided reading session
- Explore opportunities for talk during guided reading and independent activities
- Share a range of engaging reading activities.

Date: Thursday 16th May 2019
