The hook menu

Heart and thought bubble:
Tell us what the character is thinking or feeling.

The zebra felt very sleepy after his big meal of leaves and twigs.

Speech bubble:
Have the character talking to someone.

‘That’s hilarious,’ laughed the zebra.

Listening ear:
Use a sound effect.

The beating sound of the zebra’s hooves echoed across the vast valley.

Person:
Jump right into the action.

The zebra lifted his head and listened to see if he could hear the sound again.

Question mark:
Ask a question.

Did you know that zebras have their own special smile??

Magnetic field:
Tell us about the setting.

The searing sun beat down on the savannah.

© Sheena Cameron & Louise Dempsey 2019

This page is reproducible for classroom use.